Of COURTS.

HOW blest is that Interpreter of Laws,
Who Rich and Poor make equal in a Cause !
Who dares with steady hand the Balance hold,
And ne'er inclines it to one Side for Gold ;
Altho' in Rags, one Scale gives equal weight,
Against the gilded Trappings of the Great.
'Tis such alone deserves our just applause,
And such alone gives Sanction to the Laws.

ECLIPSES for the Year 1786.

THERE will be five Eclipses this Year; three of the Sun, and two of the Moon, as follows, viz.

- I. The first will be of the Moon, on Saturday the 14th Day of January, at 8 o'clock in the morning: the quantity eclipsed will be 4 digits 47 min. on the south limb; but the beginning only will be seen by us, as the eclipse happens about half an hour before Sun rise.
- II. The second will be of the Sun, on Sunday January the 29th at 10 o'clock in the afternoon, invisible.—
D's long. 10 deg. 29 min. of Aquarius.
- III. The third will be of the Moon, on Tuesday the 11th day of July, at 56 min. after 5 o'clock in the morning, mostly invisible, but in itself total; the beginning only will be seen, as it happens but 20 minutes before Sun rise.
- IV. The fourth will be of the Sun, on Tuesday the 25th of July, at 4 o'clock in the morning, invisible.
- V. The fifth will be a small Eclipse of the Sun, on the 20th day of December, about noon, invisible.

THE MASSACHUSETTS REGISTER,

[Printed and sold by T. & J. FLEET.]

The DECLARATION of the RIGHTS of the Inhabitants of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, agreed upon at framing their new Constitution of Civil Government for themselves and Posterity.

Art. I. ALL men are born free and equal, and have certain natural, essential and unalienable rights; among which may be reckoned the right of enjoying and defending their lives and liberties; that of acquiring, possessing, and protecting property; in fine, that of seeking and obtaining their safety and happiness.

II. It is the right as well as the duty of all men in society, publicly, and at stated seasons, to worship the Supreme Being, the great Creator and preserver of the universe. And no subject shall be hurt, molested, or restrained, in his person, liberty, or estate, for worshipping GOD in the manner and season most agreeable to the dictates of his own conscience; or for his religious profession or sentiments; provided he doth not disturb the public peace, or obstruct others in their religious worship.

III. As the happiness of a people, and the good order and preservation of civil government, essentially depend upon piety, religion and morality; and as these cannot be generally diffused through a community, but by the institution of the public worship of God, and of public instructions in piety, religion and morality: Therefore, to promote their happiness, and to secure the good order and preservation of their government, the people of this Com-

Commonwealth have a right to invest their legislature with power to authorize and require, and the legislature shall, from time to time, authorize and require, the several towns, parishes, precincts, and other bodies politic, or religious societies, to make suitable provision, at their own expence, for the institution of the public worship of God, and for the support and maintenance of public protestant teachers of piety, religion and morality, in all cases where such provision shall not be made voluntarily. And the people of this Commonwealth have also a right to, and do, invest their legislature with authority to enjoin upon all the subjects an attendance upon the instructions of the public teachers aforesaid, at stated times and seasons, if there be any on whose instructions they can conscientiously and conveniently attend. Provided notwithstanding, that the several towns, parishes, precincts, and other bodies politic, or religious societies, shall, at all times, have the exclusive right of electing their public teachers, and of contracting with them for their support and maintenance. And all monies paid by the subject to the support of public worship, and of the public teachers aforesaid, shall, if he require it, be uniformly applied to the support of the public teacher or teachers of his own religious sect or denomination, provided there be any on whose instructions he attends; otherwise it may be paid towards the support of the teacher or teachers of the parish or precinct in which the said monies are raised. And every denomination of christians, demeaning themselves peaceably, and as good subjects of the Commonwealth shall be equally under the protection of the law.

IV. The people of this Commonwealth have the sole and exclusive right of governing themselves as a free, sovereign, and independent state; and do, and forever hereafter shall exercise and enjoy every power, jurisdiction, and right, which is not, or may not hereafter, be by them expressly delegated to the United States of America, in Congress assembled.

V. All power residing originally in the people, and being derived from them, the several magistrates and officers of government, vested with authority, whether legislative, executive, or judicial, are their substitutes and agents, and are at all times accountable to them.

VI. No man, nor corporation, or association of men, have any other title to obtain advantages, or particular and exclusive privileges, distinct from those of the community, than what arises from the consideration of services rendered to the public; and this title being in nature neither hereditary, nor transmissible to children, or descendants, or relations by blood, the idea of a man born magistrate, lawgiver, or judge, is absurd and unnatural.

VII. Government is instituted for the common good; for the protection, safety, prosperity and happiness of the people; and not for the profit, honor, or private interest of any one man, family, or class of men: Therefore the people alone have an incontestible, unalienable, and indefeasible right to institute government; and to reform, alter, or totally change the same, when their protection, safety, prosperity and happiness require it.

VIII. In order to prevent those, who are vested with authority, from becoming oppressors, the people have a right, at such periods and in such manner as they shall establish by their frame of government, to cause the public officers to return to private life; and to fill up vacant places by certain and regular elections and appointments.

IX. All elections ought to be free; and all the inhabitants of this Commonwealth, having such qualifications as they shall establish by their frame of government, have an equal right to elect officers, and to be elected, for public employments.

X. Each individual of the society has a right to be protected by it in the enjoyment of his life, liberty and property, according to standing laws. He is obliged, consequently, to contribute his share to the expence of his protection; to give his personal service, or an equivalent, when necessary: But no part of the property of any individual, can, with justice, be taken from him, or applied to public uses, without his own consent or that of the representative body of the people: In fine, the people of this Commonwealth are not controulable by any other laws, than those to which their constitutional representative body have given their consent. And whenever the public exigencies require, that the property of any individual should be appropriated to public uses, he shall receive a reasonable compensation therefor.

X. Every subject of the Commonwealth ought to find a certain remedy, by having recourse to the laws, for all injuries or wrongs which he may receive in his person, property, or character. He ought to obtain right and justice freely, and without being obliged to purchase it; completely, and without any denial; promptly, and without delay; conformably to the laws.

XI. No subject shall be held to answer for any crime or offence, until the same is fully and plainly, substantially and formally, described to him; or be compelled to accuse or furnish evidence against himself. And every subject shall have a right to produce all proofs that may be favorable to him; to meet the witnesses against him face to face, and to be fully heard in his defence by himself, or his council, at his election. And no subject shall be arrested, imprisoned, despoiled, or deprived of his property, immunities, or privileges, put out of the protection of the law, exiled or deprived of his life, liberty or estate, but by the judgment of his peers, or the laws of the land.

And the legislature shall not make any law, that shall subject any person to a capital or infamous punishment, excepting for the government of the army and navy, without trial by jury.

XIII. In criminal prosecutions, the verification of facts in the vicinity where they happen, is one of the greatest securities of the life, liberty, and property of the citizen.

XIV. Every subject has a right to be secure from all unreasonable searches & seizures of his person, his houses, his papers, and all his possessions. All warrants, therefore, are contrary to this right, if the cause or foundation of them be not previously supported by oath or affirmation; and if the order in the warrant to a civil officer to make search in suspected places, or to arrest one or more suspected persons, or to seize their property be not accompanied with a special designation of the persons or objects of search, arrest or seizure; and no warrant ought to be issued but in cases and with the formalities, prescribed by the laws.

XV. In all controversies concerning property, and in all suits between two or more persons, except in cases in which it has heretofore been otherwise used and practised, the parties have a right to a trial by a jury; and this method of procedure shall be held sacred, unless, in causes arising on the high seas, and such as relate to mariners wages, the legislature shall hereafter find it necessary to alter.

XVI. The liberty of the Press is essential to the security of freedom in a state : it ought not, therefore, to be restrained in this Commonwealth.

XVII. The people have a right to keep and bear arms for the common defence. And as in time of peace armies are dangerous to liberty, they ought not to be maintained without the consent of the legislature ; and the military power shall always be held in an exact subordination to the civil authority, and be governed by it.

XVIII. A frequent recurrence to the fundamental principles of the constitution, and a constant adherence to those of piety, justice, moderation, temperance, industry, and frugality, are absolutely necessary to preserve the advantages of liberty, and to maintain a free government : The people ought, consequently, to have a particular attention to all those principles, in the choice of their officers and representatives : And they have a right to require of their law-givers and magistrates, an exact and constant observance of them, in the formation and execution of the laws necessary for the good administration of the Commonwealth.

XIX. The people have a right, in an orderly and peaceable manner, to assemble to consult upon the common good ; give instructions to their representatives ; and to request of the legislative body, by the way of addresses, petitions, or remonstrances, redress of the wrongs done them, and of the grievances they suffer.

XX. The power of suspending the laws, or the execution of the laws, ought never to be exercised but by the legislature, or by authority derived from it, to be exercised in such particular cases only as the legislature shall expressly provide for.

XXI. The freedom of deliberation, speech and debate, in either house of the legislature, is so essential to the rights of the people, that it cannot be the foundation of any accusation or prosecution, action or complaint, in any other court or place whatever.

XXII. The legislature ought frequently to assemble for the redress of grievances, for correcting, strengthening, and confirming the laws, and for making new laws, as the common good may require.

XXIII. No subsidy, charge, tax, impost, or duties, ought to be established, fixed, laid, or levied, under any pretext whatsoever, without the consent of the people, or their representatives in the legislature.

XXIV. Laws made to punish for actions done before the existence of such laws, and which have not been declared crimes by preceding laws are unjust, oppressive, & inconsistent with the fundamental principles of a free government.

XXV. No subject ought, in any case, or in any time, to be declared guilty of treason or felony by the legislature.

XXVI. No magistrate or court of law, shall demand excessive bail or sureties, impose excessive fines, or inflict cruel or unusual punishments.

XXVII. In time of peace no soldier ought to be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner; and in time of war such quarters ought not to be made but by the civil magistrate, in a manner ordained by the legislature.

XXVIII. No person can in any case be subjected to law-martial, or to any penalties or pains, by virtue of that law, except those employed in the army or navy, and except the militia in actual service, but by authority of the legislature.

XXIX. It is essential to the preservation of the rights of every individual, his life, liberty, property and character, that there be an impartial interpretation of the laws, and administration of justice. It is the right of every citizen to be tried by judges as free, impartial and independent as the lot of humanity will admit. It is therefore not only the best policy, but for the security of the rights of the people, and of every citizen, that the judges of the supreme judicial court should hold their offices as long as they behave themselves well; and that they should have honorable salaries ascertained and established by standing laws.

XXX. In the government of this Commonwealth, the legislative department shall never exercise the executive and judicial powers, or either of them: The executive shall never exercise the legislative and judicial powers, or either of them: The judicial shall never exercise the legislative and executive powers, or either of them: to the end it may be a government of laws and not of men."

☞ The Substance of the Constitution or Frame of Government may be seen under the different Heads of Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Council, Senators, Representatives, Secretary, Treasurer, Judicial-Officers, &c. &c.

JAMES BOWDOIN, Esq; LL.D.

Governor and Commander in Chief.

[Salary £. 1100 per Annum in Specie.]

[By the Constitution a Governor is to be voted for by the qualified Inhabitants at a meeting of the several Towns on the first monday in April annually, and the choice (in case of a majority of votes) to be declared and published on the last Wednesday in May: But if no one has a majority of votes, the House of Representatives, are, by ballot, to elect two out of four persons who had the highest number of votes, and make return to the Senate of the two so elected, on which, the Senate are to proceed, by ballot, to elect one, who is to be declared Governor.—

The Governor, Lieut. Governor, Counsellors, Senators, and Representatives, are, before they proceed to execute the duties of their place or office, to make and subscribe the following declaration, viz. "I, A. B. do declare, that I believe the christian religion, and have a firm persuasion of its truth; and that I am seized and possessed, in my own right, of the property required by the Constitution as one qualification for the office or place to which I am elected." And this declaration is to be made and subscribed in the presence of the two Houses of Assembly.— They are also, with every other person appointed or commissioned to any judicial, executive, military, or other office under the government, to take and subscribe the following declaration and oaths or affirmations, viz. " I, A. B. do truly and sincerely acknowledge, profess, testify and declare, that the Commonwealth of Massachusetts is, and of right ought to be, a free, sovereign and independent State; and I do swear, that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the said Commonwealth, and that I will defend the same against traitertous conspiracies and all hostile attempts whatever: And that I do renounce, and abjure all allegiance, subjection and obedience to the King, Queen or Government of Great-Britain (as the case may be) and every other foreign power whatsoever: And that no foreign Prince, Person, Prelate, State or Potentate, hath, or ought to have, any jurisdiction, superiority, pre-eminence, authority, dispensing or other power, in any matter, civil, ecclesiastical or spiritual, within this Commonwealth, except the authority and power which is or may be vested in the Congress of the United States; And I do further testify and declare, that no man or body of men hath or can have any right to absolve or discharge me from the obligation of this oath, declaration or affirmation; and that I do make this acknowledgment, profession, testimony, declaration, denial, renunciation and abjuration, heartily and truly, according to the common meaning and acceptation of the foregoing words, without any equivocation, mental evasion, or secret reservation whatsoever.

" I, A. B. do solemnly swear and affirm, that I will faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all the duties incumbent on me as _____, according to the best of my abilities and understanding, agreeably to the rules and regulations of the Constitution, and the laws of this Commonwealth. So help me God." Quakers, declining to take said oaths, may make affirmation in the foregoing form, and subscribe the same, omitting the words I do swear---and abjure---oath or---and abjuration---swear and--- and the words So help me God; subjoining instead thereof, This I do under the pains and penalties of perjury."—The Person chosen Governor must have been an inhabitant of the Commonwealth seven years, and seized in his own right of a freehold of £. 1000 value.—The Governor cannot prorogue the General Court exceeding 90 days during any one recess of the same, and must dissolve it the day next preceeding the last Wednesday in May.—The Governor for the time being, is to be commander in chief of the army and navy, and of all the military forces of the state, by sea & land, and for the defence & safety of the Commonwealth, to assemble in martial array, and put in warlike posture the inhabitants thereof, and to lead and conduct them to encounter, repel, resist, expel and pursue, by force of arms, within or without the limits of the Commonwealth; also to kill, slay or destroy, and conquer by all fitting ways and means whatsoever, all such as shall at any time in a hostile manner attempt the destruction, invasion, or annoyance thereof; it is nevertheless provided, that no inhabitant is obliged to march out of the limits of the Commonwealth without his free consent, or the consent of the General Court.—All judicial officers, the Attorney-General, the Solicitor General, Sheriffs, Coroners, and Registers of Probate, must be nominated by the Governor at least seven days prior to their appointment.—The Governor, with the advice of Council, has power of pardoning offences.—All public Boards, the Commissary-General, and all superintending officers of public magazines and stores, and all commanding officers of forts and garrisons, must, every three months (without requisition) deliver to the Governor an account of all goods, stores, provisions, ammunition, cannon, with their appendages, small arms, with their accoutrements, and all public property; also to communicate to him all letters and intelligences of a public nature, as soon as may be after receiving the same.]—

—THOMAS CUSHING, Esq; LL.D.

Lieutenant-Governor.

[The Lieutenant-Governor is to be qualified in point of religion, property, and residence in the Commonwealth, as the Governor, and the day and manner of his election is likewise to be the same: He is always to be a member of the Council, and in the absence of the Governor, President thereof, at which time he is to have no vote.—In case of the death of the Governor, or his absence from the Commonwealth, the Lieutenant Governor is, during such vacancy, to perform all the duties incumbent upon the Governor when personally present.]

COUNSELLORS.

The Honorable

Walter Spooner	Nathan Cushing	Edward Cutts
Moses Gill	Jonathan Greenleaf	Samuel Adams
Timothy Danielson	Aaron Wood	Abraham Fuller

Esquires.

[The Council, for advising the Governor in the executive part of his government, is to consist of nine persons, besides the Lieutenant Governor, who are to be chosen annually from among the persons returned for Counsellors and Senators, on the last Wednesday in May, by the joint ballot of the Senators and Representatives, and not more than two to be chosen out of any one district; and in case of death, absence, or otherwise, the office of Governor and Lieutenant Governor should be vacant, then the Council, or the major part of them, are, during such vacancy, to have full power and authority to do and execute all such acts, matters and things, as the Governor, or Lieutenant-Governor might or could do, if they were personally present. If the elections appointed to be made on the last Wednesday in May annually, be not completed on that day, the said elections may be adjourned from day to day until the same shall be completed: "The order of elections are to be as follows; the vacancies in the Senate, if any, shall first be filled up; the Governor and Lieutenant-Governor shall then be elected, provided there should be no choice of them by the people; and afterwards the two Houses shall proceed to the election of the Council."—The seats of such as are elected from the Senate to be vacated there.—The Counsellors to have rank next after the Lieutenant-Governor.]

—JOHN AVERY, jun. Esq; Secretary.

[The Secretary is to be chose annually, by joint ballot of the Senators and Representatives: The records of the Commonwealth are to be kept in the office of the Secretary, who may appoint his deputies, for whose conduct he is accountable and he is also to attend the Governor and Council, the Senate and House of Representatives in person, or by his deputies, as they shall respectively require.]

[The Senate, with the Governor's Council, is to consist of forty persons, to be chosen by the qualified inhabitants at a meeting of the several towns on the first monday in April annually, to be warned by their respective Selectmen at least seven days before; the votes are to be sorted and counted in open town meeting in presence of the Clerk, who is to make a fair record in presence of the Selectmen of the name of every person voted for, and of the number of votes against his name; a copy of which is to be attested by the Selectmen and Town-Clerk, then sealed and directed to the Secretary, with a superscription expressing the purport of the contents thereof, then to be delivered by the Town-Clerk to the Sheriff of the County 30 days at least before the last wednesday in May, and must be delivered into the Secretary's office, by the Sheriff or others, 17 days before the said last wednesday in May: All persons living in places unincorporated, who are qualified, and are assess'd for the support of government, are to have the privilege of voting for Counsellors & Senators in the towns where they are assess'd.—The following are the numbers to be elected for each county, Suffolk 6, Essex 6, Middlesex 5, Hampshire 4, Plymouth 3, Barnstable 1, Bristol 3, York 2, Dukes County & Nantucket 1, Worcester 5, Cumberland 1, Lincoln 1, Berkshire 2. Each Senator is to be seized in his own right of a freehold of the value of £.300 at least, or possessed of personal estate to the value of £.600, or both to the amount of the same sum; to have been an inhabitant of the Commonwealth for the space of five years, and at the time of his election an inhabitant of the district for which he shall be chosen.—The Senate are to be the final judges of the elections, returns and qualifications of their own members; to choose its own President, appoint its own officers, and determine its own rules and proceedings, and to adjourn themselves, provided it does not exceed two days at a time; not less than sixteen members to constitute a quorum for doing business.—The Senate is the first branch of the legislature; in case there shall not be the full number elected by a majority of votes for any district, the deficiency to be supplied in the following manner, viz. “the members of the House of Representatives, and such Senators as shall be declared elected, shall take the names of such persons as shall be found to have the highest number of votes in such district, and not elected, amounting to twice the number of Senators wanting, if there be so many voted for; and out of these shall elect, by ballot, a number of Senators sufficient to fill up the vacancies in such district; and in this manner all such vacancies shall be filled up in every district of the Commonwealth; and in like manner, all vacancies in the Senate, arising by death, removal out of the State, or otherwise, shall be supplied, as soon as may be, after such vacancies happen.”—The Senate has full authority to hear and determine all impeachments made by the House of Representatives, against any officer or officers of the Commonwealth, for misconduct and mal-administration in their offices. Their judgment, however, not to extend further than removal from office, and disqualification to hold or enjoy any place of honor, trust or profit, under the Commonwealth; but the party convicted is nevertheless liable to indictment, trial, judgment and punishment, according to the laws of the land.]

A List of the Honorable HOUSE of REPRESENTATIVES,

Chosen in May 1785, and to continue as such till the last Wednesday in May 1786, then to be dissolved.—

Near 100 of the present Members were not of the House last Year.—The Names of the Towns which have not sent Representatives are also here inserted.

—Hon. NATHANIEL GORHAM, Esq; Speaker.

The General Court of Massachusetts is to consist of a Senate and House of Representatives (the powers, &c. of which are before described) each to have a negative on the other, and to assemble every year on the last wednesday in May, and at such other times as they shall judge necessary, and to be dissolved on the day preceeding the said last wednesday in May.---No Bill or Resolve of the Senate or House of Representatives to have force or become a law, until it has been laid before the Governor for his revisal; which, if he approves, he is to signify his approbation by signing the same; but if he has any objections, he is to return it with his objections, in writing, to the Senate or House of Representatives, in which soever the same may have originated, who are then to reconsider the matter; but if after such reconsideration, two thirds of the said Senate or House, shall, notwithstanding, agree to pass the same, it is to be sent to the other branch of the legislature, where, if approved by two thirds of the members present, it is to have the force of a law---Though in order to prevent delays, if any Bill or Resolve shall not be returned by the Governor in five days after it is presented it shall then have the force of a law.---The General Court is forever to have full power and authority to erect and constitute judicatories and courts of records, or other courts, to be held in the name of the Commonwealth, for the hearing, trying, and determining of all manner of crimes, offences, pleas, processes, complaints, actions, matters, causes and things, whatsoever, arising or happening within the Commonwealth, or between or concerning persons inhabiting, or residing, or brought within the same; whether the same be criminal or civil, or whether the said crimes be capital or not capital, and whether the said pleas be real, personal, or mixt; and for the awarding and making out of execution thereupon.---The General Court has also, by the Constitution, full power and authority to make, ordain and establish all manner of wholesome and reasonable laws, statutes and ordinances, with penalties or without, as they shall judge to be for the good and welfare of the Commonwealth, and for the governing and ordering thereof, and for the necessary support and defence of government; likewise to impose and levy proportional and reasonable assessments, rates and taxes, upon all the inhabitants and estates lying within the Commonwealth; and to impose and levy reasonable duties and excises upon any produce, goods, wares, merchandize, and other commodities brought into, produced, manufactured or being within the same, to be issued and disposed of for the public service, necessary defence, and support of government.---In order that assessments be made with equality, a valuation of estates is to be taken anew once in every ten years at the least, and oftener if the Court think necessary.]

THOMAS IVERS, Esq;

Treasurer and Receiver-General.

[The Treasurer is to be chosen annually, by joint ballot of the Senators & Representatives in one room. And that the citizens of the Commonwealth may be assured, from time to time, that the monies remaining in the public Treasury, upon the settlement and liquidation of the public accounts, are their property, no man is to be eligible for that office more than five years successively.]

The Treasurer's Office is kept in the late Province-House.

The Pilots are to be under oath, and to enter into bond of 1000*l.* for the due performance of their trust.

The district of the Pilots for the Port of Boston is from the highlands of Marshfield on the south, to what is called Nabant rock on the north. Those for the ports of Salem and Marblehead, from said Nabant rock on the south, to Norman's Woe, on the north : The Pilots for Cape Ann, from the said Norman's Woe, round to Jabackab bar : The Pilots for Newbury-port from Jabackab bar, on the south, to the Isle of Shoals on the north : and the Pilots for the port of Plymouth, from the highlands afore mentioned on the north, to the point of Cape Cod.

Directions for sailing in and out of Boston Bay.

THE Light House stands on a small Island at the north entrance of the channel (Point Alderton and Nantasket heights being on the south) and is about 65 feet high ; to steer for it from Cape Cod, the course is W.N.W. when within one league of the Cape : From Cape Cod to the Light House is about 16 leagues : From Cape Ann to the Light House, the course is S.W. distance 10 leagues. After making the Light, and the wind fair, you may bring it to bear W. by N. or W. N.W. and then run for it, till you come within two cables lengths of it. If the weather is so bad that a Pilot can't come off (as is sometimes the case) after running a-breast of it, so as to bring it to bear N. by E. you may run W. by S. about a mile and an half, to Nantasket road, where there is anchorage from 7 to 5 fathoms in safety. If the wind is a-head and you are obliged to work into Boston bay, stand to the southward till you bring the Light to bear W.N.W. and to the northward till you bring it to bear W.S.W. till within one league of it; then you must not stand to the northward any further than to bring it to bear W. by N. and to the southward to bring it to bear W.N.W.—

There are two Lights off Cape Ann, on an Island call'd Thatcher's Island; they bear of each other, when in one. S.S.W. a quarter S. and N.N.E. a quarter N. To go outside the Londoner, or Thatcher's Island ledge, you must give the light one league's distance.

Mr. Thomas Knox is Keeper of the Boston LightHouse. the supplies for which, annually, are 60 bushels of charcoal, and 25 cords of wood, with cotton and oil in such quantities as shall be found necessary, to be furnished by the Commissary General.—The Keeper, for himself and two assistants, is allowed 120*l.* per annum.

A General Description of the Thirteen United States of America.

THE declaration of Independence, by which these States took an equal station among the nations of the earth, is dated July 4, 1776. The articles of confederation between the said States were finally ratified on the 1st of March 1781. The supreme power of the United States is lodged in a Congress of delegates from each of the States; but each State retains its sovereignty and independence, and every right which is not expressly delegated to the United States in Congress assembled.

By the definitive treaty of peace, signed at Paris, Sept. 3. 1783 [See last year's Register, page 53.] the boundaries of the United States are fixed as follows: northwardly, by Nova Scotia, Canada, and the Lakes; on the west by the Mississippi; on the south by east and west Florida; on the east by the Atlantic, including all islands within twenty leagues of the coast: Extending from the 45th to the 32d degree of north latitude, and from the 67th to the 98th degree of west longitude in the most northerly part, and in the most southerly from the 80th to the 90th degree of ditto: Containing 270,650 square miles. Great part of this territory is not under the jurisdiction of any particular State, but belongs to the confederacy. These vacant lands Congress has laid out into 10 new States, viz. The territory from the 45th degree to the Lake of the Woods, to be called Sylvania, i. e. Woodland. That under the 45th and 44th degrees, westward of Michigan, to be called Michigania: and that which is westward thereof within the peninsula formed by the lakes of Michigan, Huron, St. Clair and Erie, to be called Chersonesus, i. e. Peninsula. That under the 43d and 42d degrees, to the westward, thro' which the Rock river runs, to be called Assenispia, i. e. Rocky State: and that to the eastward, in which are the fountains of the Muskingum, the two Miamis, of Ohio, the Wabash, the Illinois, and Sanduski rivers, to be called Metropotamia, i. e. Head of the Rivers. That under the 41st and 40th degrees, the western, thro' which the Illinois runs, to be called Illinoia: that next adjoining to the eastward, to be called Saratoga: and that between this last and Pennsylvania, to be called Washington. That under the 39th and 38th degree, ad-assent to which are the confluences of the rivers Wabash, Sewanee, Tanissée, Ohio, Illinois, Mississippi & Missouri, to be called Polypotamia, i. e. Many Rivers: and that to the eastward, farther up the Ohio, to be called Pelispia, i. e. the Country of Skins.

The inhabitants of Vermont, bordering on Massachusetts and New Hampshire, have form'd themselves into a separate State, and chosen the following officers, viz.

Tho. Chittenden, Esq; Gov. | Ira Allen, Esq; Treasurer.
Paul Spooner, Esq; Lieut. Gov. | Micah Townsend Esq; Sec.
Hon. Moses Robinson, Ira Allen and Nath. Niles, Esq's

The Counties of Washington, Sullivan and Greene, in North Carolina, have also lately formed themselves into a separate State to bear the name of Franklin and have chosen Brigadier General Saveez for their Governor.

Some other parts of the United States, it is said, are meditating the same mode of independence; particularly the eastern parts of Massachusetts.

Those parts of North America, not under the dominion of the United States belong to Britain and Spain. The British colonies are Canada and Nova Scotia, the capitals of which are Quebec and Halifax; and a colony lately erected, called New Brunswick, the capital named Shelburne. The Spanish colonies are East and West Florida, the capitals of which are St. Augustine and Pensacola; with the territory west of the Mississippi.

Massachusetts-Bay.

Situation. Between 42 and 45 degrees of north latitude, and 70 and 73 of west longitude.

Boundaries. On the north by New-Hampshire and Nova Scotia, on the east by the Atlantic, on the west by New York, and on the South by Rh. Island & Connecticut.

Soil and Produce. The inland part of the country is high and mountainous, and consequently barren; but on the coast and by the side of rivers, it is tolerably fruitful. The produce of the country is Indian corn and other grain, flax, hemp, timber, &c. the timber makes excellent masts, spars, and flaves. The ground is excellent for pasture, and on the coast is a valuable fishery. Large quantities of pot and pearl ash are manufactured.

Rivers. The principal are Penobscot, Kennebec, and Merrimack; but there are many smaller ones.

Capital. BOSTON, built upon a peninsula, of an irregular form, at the bottom of a large bay; the length of the town, including the neck which joins to Roxbury, is 2 miles, 3 quarters and 238 yards; but the town itself is only 1 mile, 3 quarters and 199 yards; the breadth is various, at the entrance it is narrow; the greatest breadth, (from Foster's wharf to Barton's point) is 1 mile and 139 yards; the number of acres on which the Town stands is supposed to be about a thousand; in it there are near 1800 dwelling houses, in many of which are two or more tenements; by a late computation the number of inhabitants was 14,640; of these 6570 are males, and 8070 are females; the number of rateable polls (exclusive of strangers and transient persons, which generally amount to near one third of the whole number of souls) is about 2620; there are in Boston, 79 streets, 38 lanes, 21 alleys, exclusive of squares and courts (for the names, &c. of which, see Register for 1784, p. 17 to 24) and about 80 wharves and quays, very convenient for vessels to load or unload; it is provided with an excellent harbour, diversified with many Islands, which afford rich pasturing, hay and grain; it has been computed, that during the siege, in 1775, as many houses were destroyed in Boston by the British troops as were burnt in Charlestown; since the peace a spirit of repairs and improvement has diffused itself among the people, and in a few years may render the metropolis of Massachusetts as famed for arts, manufactures, and commerce as any city in the United States.

One Blaxton was the first settler in Boston; he resided at the western part of the town, and claimed the whole Peninsula, but his claim was not allowed.

Constitution. The executive power is in a Governor, Lieut. Governor, and Privy Council; the legislative consists of two branches, a Senate, and a House of Representatives, who are chosen annually; more particulars, relative to the Constitution, may be seen in pages 7—19.

Religious Test. There is properly none; all who renounce every foreign jurisdiction, civil and ecclesiastic, are admissible to offices of government.

Number of Inhabitants. 400,000.

Governor. His Excellency James Bowdoin, Esq; LL.D.

Delegates for Congress. Hon. John Hancock, Nathaniel Gorham, Rufus King, Theodore Sedgwick, and Nathan Dane, Esquires.

New-Hampshire.

Situation. Between 43 and 46 degrees of north latitude, and 67 and 72 west longitude.

Boundaries. On the east by the Atlantic, on the west by New York and Lake Champlain, on the north by Canada, and on the south by Massachusetts.

Soil and Produce. Nearly the same as Massachusetts.

Rivers. Piscataqua, and some smaller rivers.

Capital. Portsmouth, situated on Piscataqua bay, has a fine harbour, where the largest ships may ride in safety.

Constitution. The same as Massachusetts, except instead of a Governor and Lieutenant Governor, a President of the State is annually chosen.

Number of Inhabitants. 150,000.

President. His Excellency John Langdon, Esq;

Delegates for Congress. Hon. Woodbury Langdon, Nathaniel Peabody, Pearse Long & John Atkinson, Esq's.

Rhode-Island.

Situation. Between 42 north lat. and 72 west long.

Boundaries. On the north by Massachusetts, on the south and east by the Atlantic, on the west by Connecticut.

The State of Rhode Island consists of an Island of that name about 16 miles in length, and of the old plantation of Providence. It has been called the paradise of New-England from the fertility of its soil, and the temperature of its climate.

Capital. Newport, it is situated on Rhode Island, and has a very good harbour.

Constitution. The government of this State is the same as established by the charter of Charles II, for in that the king ceded to the people all powers, legislative, executive, and judiciary. The legislative consists of two branches; the Governor sits in the upper house. The legislature are chosen annually by the people. Every freeman has a right to elect or be elected into office. They have lately made an act there for the gradual abolition of slavery.

Religious Test. None.

Number of Inhabitants. 59,670.

Governor. His Excellency William Greene, Esq;

Delegates for Congress. Hon. John Brown, George Champlin, Paul Mumford, and Peter Phillips, Esquires.

Connecticut.

Situation. Between 41 and 43 degrees north latitude, and 73 and 75 west longitude.

Boundaries. On the north by Massachusetts, on the east by Rhode Island, on the west by New York, and on the south by Long-Island sound.

Rivers. The principal are Connecticut and Thames.

Soil and Produce. The soil is fertile, and the produce much the same as Massachusetts, tho' they raise a much greater quantity of grain of all kinds, particularly wheat, than in that State.

Capital. Hartford.

Constitution. This State also retains its ancient form of government, which is nearly the same with that of Rhode Island. They have a very respectable seminary of learning, called Yale College.

Religious Test. None.

Number of Inhabitants. 192,000.

Governor. His Excellency Matthew Griswold, Esq;

Delegates for Congress. Hon. William Pitkin. John Treadwell, Jedediah Strong, James Wadsworth, Charles C. Chandler, Joseph Platt Cook, and ——— Johnson, Esq's.

New-York.

Situation. Between 40 & 45 degrees of north latitude, and 74 and 76 of west longitude.

Boundaries. On the north by Canada, on the east by Connecticut and New-Hampshire, on the west by Pennsylvania and New-Jersey, on the south by New-Jersey and the Atlantic ocean.

Soil and Produce. The soil is extremely fertile, producing wheat, rye, indian corn, oats, barley, flax, and fruit in great abundance and perfection. The timber is much the same with that of New-England. A great deal of iron ore is found here.

Capital. New-York; an elegant and populous city, situated on an island; has a safe and convenient harbour.

There is a college in this city, called Columbia college.

Constitution. The executive power is lodged in a Governor; the legislative consists of two branches, a Senate and House of Assembly; the governor is chosen every three years; he must possess a clear freehold of 100<sup>l</sup>. he is chosen by freeholders of the same qualification; the Senators and their electors must be qualified as aforesaid the Assembly is chosen by all those who have been resident in the State for six months, possess a freehold of 20 or have rented a tenement of the yearly value of 40s.

Religious Test. None.

Number of Inhabitants. 250,000.

Governor. His Excellency George Clinton, Esq;

Delegates for Congress. Hon. John Haring, Zephaniah Platt, Melancthon Smith, Peter W. Yates, and John Lawrence, Esquires.

New-Jersey.

Situation. Between 39 & 42 degrees of north latitude and 74 and 76 of west longitude.

Boundaries. On the north by New-York, on the west by the river Delaware, which divides it from Pennsylvania on the south by Delaware bay, and on the east by the Atlantic ocean.

Rivers. These are Delaware, Raritan, and Passaic.

Soil and Produce. The soil is various; at least one fourth part of the State is barren, sandy soil, producing pines and cedars; the other parts in general are good, and produce wheat, barley, rye, indian corn, &c.

Capital. Burlington. There is an excellent college at Princetown; which has been the nursery of a great number of statesmen and warriors.

Constitution. The executive power is lodged in a Governor, who is chosen annually by the legislature; the legislative power is in a Council and General Assembly; the qualifications of the Governor and Counsellors are, one year's residence, and an estate of 1000*l.* an Assembly member must have an estate of 500*l.* and be an inhabitant one year. The electors must be residents one year, and be worth 50*l.* The Council and Assembly are chosen annually.

Religious Test. All protestants are admitted to the offices of government.

Number of Inhabitants. 150,000.

Governor. His Excellency William Livingston, Esq.

Delegates for Congress. Hon. John Featty, Lamb Cadwallador, William Churchill Houghton, and Samuel Dick, Esquires.

Pennsylvania.

Situation. Between 39 and 44 degrees of north latitude, and 75 and 80 of west longitude.

Boundaries. On the north by lake Ontario and the Quebec, on the east by Delaware, which divides it from New Jersey, on the west by Maryland, Virginia, and lake Erie, and south by Maryland and the Delaware State.

Rivers. The principal rivers are the Delaware, the Susquehanna, and Schuylkill.

Soil and Produce. The soil of this country is fertile; it produces a great variety of excellent fruit, indian corn, and the finest of wheat, flax-seed, &c. &c.

Capital. Philadelphia; it is a large, elegant and populous city, situated about 150 miles from the sea, with a good harbour; it forms a parallelogram two miles in length and one in breadth, extending from the Delaware to the Schuylkill; it was built after the plan of ancient Babylon, with the streets intersecting one another at right angles, and with gardens adjoining to many of the houses; the state house and other public buildings are magnificent; the hospital here is a humane, excellent institution; there is also a respectable university in the city; and a college erecting at Carlisle, a flourishing inland town.

Constitution. The executive power is lodged in a President and Council; the legislative is in a House of Representatives; the President is chosen annually by the Council and Assembly; the Council is chosen triennially, and the Assembly annually, by the people; one year's residence, and having paid public taxes, qualify a man to be an elector; and two year's residence renders a man eligible to any office; a council of Censors are chosen every seven years, to enquire into the abuses of the constitution.

Religious Test. All who profess the christian religion are admitted to the offices of government.

President. His Excellency John Dickinson, Esq;

Delegates for Congress. Hon. Charles Pettit, James Willson, Joseph Gardner, and William Henry, Esquires.

Delaware.

Situation. Between 38 and 40 degrees of north latitude, and 76 of west longitude.

Boundaries. Northeastly by Pennsylvania, on the east by Delaware river and bay, west by Maryland, eastern division, and south by Maryland and the Atlantic.—

The three counties of Newcastle, Kent and Suffex, which now form the independent State of Delaware, had formerly the same governor as Pennsylvania, with an Assembly of their own election and distinct; the whole of this State is situated on the Delaware; they here carry on a considerable trade; the soil of the country is fertile.

Constitution. The executive power is in a Governor and privy Council, who are elected by the legislature; the legislature consists of two branches, a Council and House of Assembly; the Governor is chosen triennially, and the privy Council for two years; the legislative Council is triennial, and the house of Assembly annual, both chosen by the people.

Religious Test. All who "profess faith in God the Father, and Jesus Christ, and the Holy Ghost, one God," are admitted to the offices of government.

Capital. Wilmington; a neat little town, pleasantly situated on Christina creek, near the Delaware.

Number of Inhabitants in the two States. 350,000.

Governor. His Excellency Nicholas Vandyke, Esq;

Delegates for Congress. Hon. John Vining, and Gundling Bedford, Esquires.

Maryland.

Situation. Between 37 and 40 degrees of north latitude, and 75 and 79 of west longitude.

Boundaries. On the north by Pennsylvania, by the Atlantic ocean and Delaware state on the east, and by Virginia on the west and south. The bay of Chesapeake divides Maryland into two parts, the eastern and western.

Rivers. The chief are Potowmac, Pocomoc, Patuxent, Choptank, Severn, Sassafras and Wiccomoca.

Soil and Produce. The soil is extremely good when improved by cultivation; that part of the country situated towards the Apalachian mountains is very hilly; but in general the hills are of an easy ascent; they yield a great quantity of iron ore; the exports from this country consist of salted pork, iron, flax, hemp, indian corn, tobacco, &c. No slave can now be imported into Maryland. —

They have a seminary of learning called Washington college

Constitution. The executive power is lodged in a Governor and privy Council, chosen annually by the legislature; the legislature consists of two branches, a Senate and house of Delegates; the Senators are chosen for five years, and the house of Delegates annually; the Governor must have property to the value of 5000*l.* and have been five years an inhabitant; and a privy Counsellor or Senator must have been a residenter for three years, and have a freehold above the value of 1000*l.* A Delegate must have been a residenter one year, and possess property above the value of 500*l.* Electors must have a freehold of fifty acres, or property above the value of 50*l.* before they be intitled to vote. They have no Religious Test.

Capital. Annapolis; not populous, but an elegant city.

Number of Inhabitants. 320,000.

Governor. His Excellency William Paca, Esq;

Delegates for Congress. Hon. James M'Henry, William Smallwood, Thomas Johnson, Gustavus Scott, and Richard Ridgeley, Esquires.

Virginia.

Situation. Between 36 and 40 degrees of north latitude, and 75 and 90 west longitude.

Boundaries. By the river Potowmac, which divides it from Maryland, on the north east; by the Atlantic on the east, by North Carolina on the south, and by the river Mississippi on the west.

Capes, Bays, and Rivers. In sailing to Virginia, or Maryland, you pass a strait between two points of land, called the Capes of Virginia, which opens a passage into the bay of Chesapeak, one of the largest and safest in the world, for it enters the country near 300 miles from the south to the north, is about 18 miles wide for a considerable way, and seven where it is narrowest, the waters in most places being 9 fathoms deep. This bay through its whole extent receives a vast number of navigable rivers from the sides both of Maryland and Virginia; from the latter, besides others of less note, it receives James's river, York river, the Rappahanock, and the Potowmac; these are not only navigable for large ships into the heart of the country, but have so many creeks, and receive such a number of navigable rivers, that Virginia is without doubt the most convenient country in the world for navigation.

Soil and Produce. Towards the sea shore and the banks of the rivers, the soil consists of a dark rich mould, which for many years, without manure, returns plentifully what is committed to it; at a distance from the water there is a lightness and sandiness in the soil, which, however, is of a generous nature, and helped by a kindly sun, yield-corn and tobacco extremely well.

Constitution. The executive power is exercised by the Governor, who is chosen annually, and a privy Council, who are chosen triennially, by the legislature; the Legislature is formed of two distinct branches, a Senate chosen every four years, and a house of Delegates, chosen annually by the people. They have no religious Test.

No slave can be imported into Virginia.

Capital. Richmond.

Number of Inhabitants. 650,000

Governor. His Excellency Patrick Henry, Esq;

Delegates for Congress. Hon. Richard Henry Lee, James Munroe, and Samuel Hardy, Esquires.

North-Carolina.

Situation. Between 35 and 37 degrees of north latitude, and 76 and 90 of west longitude.

Boundaries. By Virginia on the north, the Atlantic on the east, by South Carolina on the south, and by the Mississippi on the west.

Rivers. The chief are the Roanoke, Pamlico, and Cape Fear River.

Soil and Produce. Those grounds which bear the oak, the walnut and the hickory, are very fruitful. The people of North Carolina used to supply the West India islands with beef, pork, grain, pease, butter, raw hides and leather; they export also tar, turpentine, masts, furs, pitch, indigo and rice.

Constitution. The executive power is in a Governor and Council of the State chosen annually by the Legislature; the Governor must have been an inhabitant five years, and have a freehold of the value of 1000*l*. The Legislature consists of two branches, a Senate and house of Commons; a Senator must have resided in the State one year, and possess at least 300 acres of land in fee; a member of the house of Commons, must possess 100 acres in fee; both Houses are chosen annually; and all free-men who have been inhabitants one year, and paid taxes, may vote for Commoners, but they must possess 50 acres of a freehold before they can vote for Senators.

Religious Test. All protestants are admitted to the offices of government.

Capital. Newbern. Number of Inhabitants. 300,000.

Governor. His Excellency — Caswell, Esq;
Delegates for Congress. Hon. Hugh Williamson, Richard Dobbs Spraight, and — Sitgraves, Esquires.
South Carolina.

Situation. Between 32 and 35 degrees of north latitude, and 79 and 90 of west longitude.

Boundaries. By North Carolina on the north; by the Atlantic on the east, by Georgia on the south, and by the Mississippi on the west.

Rivers. The principal are Pedee, Santee, Cooper, Ashley, Edisto, and Combay.

Soil and Produce. The lands near the sea are little better than an unhealthy salt marsh, and for eight miles distant from it the country is one continued level, no hill, and scarce even a pebble, much less a rock to be met with, but beyond this it gradually improves; about 100 miles from Charlestown, where it begins to grow hilly, the soil is fertile. The low swampy grounds are fit for the culture of rice, which is here produced in the utmost abundance; and even the worst land in the country produces Indigo, that valuable article in commerce.

Capital. Charlestown; it is situated at the confluence of two navigable rivers, is large and elegant: Negro slaves, since the treaty of peace, are allowed to be imported from Africa into this State.

Constitution. The executive authority is administered by a Governor, assisted by a Lieutenant Governor and privy Council, who are chosen by the Legislature every two years; the legislative power is vested in two distinct bodies, a Senate and house of Representatives, who are chosen every two years by the people. A Governor and Lieutenant Governor must have been residents ten years, and privy Counsellors five years, and each possess an estate of 10,000*l.* a Senator must be 30 years of age, have been a resident five years, and have an estate of 2000*l.* or if a non-resident in the parish he is chose for, an estate of 7000*l.* a Representative must have been a resident three years, and be possessed of an estate. Any free white man, who has been one year an inhabitant, and paid taxes equal to the tax on fifty acres of land, has a right to elect members of the legislature.

Religious Test. All who believe in God are admitted to the offices of government. — Inhabitants. 225,000.

Governor. His Excellency William Moultrie, Esq;
Delegates for Congress. Hon. Charles Pinkney, Jacob
 Read, John Bull, David Ramsey, and John Kean, Esq's.
Georgia.

Situation. Between 30 and 33 degrees of north latitude and 76 and 90 of west longitude.

Boundaries. By South Carolina on the north, by the Atlantic on the east, by east and west Florida on the south, and by the Mississippi on the west.

Rivers. The chief are the Alatomaha, the Savannah, and St. Mary's, which divides Georgia from Florida.

Soil and Produce. The soil in general is tolerably fertile; the productions of Georgia are Indian corn, wheat, tobacco, &c. Nectarines, plumbs, peaches, and other fruit, grow in great abundance, and in the southern parts, lemons, oranges, olives, &c. may be successfully cultivated. The soil is excellent for tobacco, and the timber is good for ship building.

Capital. Savannah; situated on a river of the same name, with a good harbour. The celebrated Mr. George Whitefield founded here an orphan-house, which is now converted into a college.

Constitution. The government of this State has lately been new modelled, we have not been able to obtain a copy.

Number of Inhabitants. 56,000.

Governor. His Excellency Samuel Elbert, Esq;

Delegates for Congress. Hon. Abraham Baldwin, William Houston, and William Gibbons, Esquires.

Surveyors appointed by Congress, for laying off and disposing of the Western Territory.

Mr. Rufus Putnam. Surveyor for Massachusetts,

Mr. Nathaniel Adams, for New-Hampshire,

Mr. Caleb Harris, for Rhode-Island and Providence,

Mr. Abraham Martin, for New Jersey,

Mr. William Morris, for New-York,

Mr. Adam Hoops, for Pennsylvania,

Mr. James Simpson, for Maryland,

Mr. Alexander Parker, for Virginia,

Mr. Absalom Tatum. for North Carolina,

Mr. William Tate, for South Carolina,

Mr. — Johnson, for Georgia.

[For the Names, Situation, &c. of the 10 intended new States in the western Territory, see page 33 and 34.]

By a computation lately made by the Geographer of the United States, the territory thereof contains a million of square miles, in which are 640,000,000 acres.

That part of the United States, comprahended between the west temporary line of Pennsylvania on the east, the boundary line between Britain and the United States, extending from the St. Croix to the north west extremity of the Lake of the Woods on the north; the River Mississippi to the mouth of the Ohio on the west, and the River Ohio on the south to the afore-mentioned bounds of Pennsylvania, contains by computation about 411,000 square miles; in which are 263,040,000 acres.

Congress, on the 12th of April 1785, Resolved, that 700 troops should be raised for the term of three years, for the defence of the north western frontiers, &c. and that they be proportioned as follows; Connecticut to raise 165, New York 165, New Jersey 110, and Pennsylvania 160; to be commanded by one Lieutenant-Colonel from Pennsylvania; two Majors, one from Connecticut and one from New-York, each to command a company; eight captains, ten lieutenants, one to act as Adjutant, one as quarter-master; one as Pay-master; ten Ensigns, one Surgeon and four mates, to be furnished by each State in proportion to their men. The Lieutenant-Colonel's pay to be 50 dollars per month, Majors 45 dollars, Captains 35, Lieutenants 26, Ensigns 20, Serjeants, 6, Corporals 5, Drums 5, Fife 5, and Privates 4. Lieutenants, acting as Adjutants, Quarter-masters, and Pay-masters, to be allowed ten dollars per month extraordinary.

The following Scheme is deemed to exhibit the whole race of Mankind now on the surface of the Globe.

Europe contains	-	-	-	138,200,000
Asia;	-	-	-	450,000,000
Africa,	-	-	-	150,000,000
America,	-	-	-	160,000,000
Total,				898,200,000

If we reckon with the ancients, that a generation lasts thirty years, in that space 898,200,000 persons will be born and die; consequently 82,027 will die every day.

Commissioners appointed by Congress.

The Officers of the American Army after the conclusion of the late War, did, gratefully to commemorate that event, and to inculcate to the latest ages the duty of laying down in peace, arms assumed for public defence, formed an institution to recognize that most important principle, and continue the mutual friendships which commenced under the pressure of common danger; also to effectuate such acts of benevolence as are dictated by a spirit of brotherly kindness towards those officers and their families who may unfortunately be under the necessity of receiving them, constituted themselves into a Society of Friends; and having a high veneration for the character of the illustrious Roman General, LUCIUS QUINTUS CINCINNATUS (who after having conquered his enemies and procured peace for his country retired to the quiet enjoyment of a rural life) they denominated themselves the Society of the CINCINNATI.

The persons who constitute this Society are all to be commissioned and brevet officers of the army and navy, and to have served three years with reputation.

In order to form funds for the relief of unfortunate members, their widows & orphans, each Officer is to deliver to the Treasurer of the State meetings, one month's pay.

The funds of each meeting to be loaned, and the interest only to be applied to the purposes of the Society.

Similar Cincinnati Societies are established in each of the other United States, by the Officers belonging to them respectively:—Their State Meetings to be always on the anniversary of Independence.—For their general Rules and Regulations, see last year's Register, page 61.

The Order of the Society is a bald Eagle of gold, bearing on its breast the following emblems, viz. the figure of Cincinnatus; three Senators presenting him with a sword and other military ensigns; on a field, in the back ground, his wife standing at the door of their cottage; near it a plough and other instruments of husbandry: Round the whole Omnia relinquit servare Rempublicam. On the reverse, the Sun rising, a city with open gates and vessels entering the port; Fame crowning Cincinnatus with a wreath, inscribed Virtutis Præmium: below, Hands joining, supporting a Heart, with the motto, Esse perpetua: *Societas Cincinnatorum, instituta A.D. His Excellency Benjamin Franklin, Esq; at the Court of France, who has leave to resign.

His Excellency Thomas Jefferson, Esq; at Ditto.

W. T. Franklin, Esq; Secretary to the Embassy.

His Excellency John Adams, Esq; at London.

Col. William Smith, Secretary to the Embassy.

Hon. William Carmichael, Esq; at Spain.

Hon. John Rutledge, Esq; to the United Netherlands.

By a Resolve of Congress the salary of a Minister at a foreign Court is not to exceed 9000 dollars; and that of Secretary to a Commission, 3000 dollars per annum.

Ministers, Consuls, &c. from Foreign Courts.

Don Diego de Gardoqui, Encargado de Negocios of Spain, with Congress.

Don Francisco Renden, Secretary to the Spanish Legation.

When the Spanish Ambassador was introduced to Congress by Mr. Jay, the Minister at War, July 2, 1785, he delivered the following letter of credence from his most Catholic Majesty, viz.

"TO our great and well beloved friends, the United States of North America.

Great and beloved Friends,

DEsiring to give you proofs of the good will and consideration with which we regard you, and to provide that our respective subjects should enjoy from their mutual intercourse and commerce all the benefit which can be produced thereby; have named the Commissary of my royal armies, Don Diego Gardoqui, to go and reside near you, in quality of my Encargado de Negocios, on account of the satisfaction I have in his good conduct. I hope he will avail himself of it, to render himself acceptable, and that you will give entire faith and credit to all that in my name he shall say to you, and that you will admit and treat him in a manner consistent with your good correspondence. I pray God, great and well beloved friends, to preserve you in his holy keeping.

St. Ildefonso, Sept. 2/1784.

Hon. John Temple, Esq; Consul General from the Court of Great Britain to the United States of America.

His Excellency Peter John Van Berkel, Ambassador from United States of Holland, with Congress.

Diderick Laertouwer, Esq; Consul from Ditto for Massachusetts and New-Hampshire.

Christian Coenraad Backman, Esq; Consul from ditto for Rhode Island and Connecticut.

Herman Le Roy, Esq; Consul from ditto for New York and New-Jersey.

Jan Hendrick Christian Heineker, Esq; Consul from ditto for Pennsylvania.

Adriaan Vealk, Esq; Consul from ditto for Maryland and Virginia.

Jan Boonen Graves, Esq; Consul from ditto for North and South Carolina and Georgia.

Richard Soderstrom, Esq; Consul of the Swedish nation, at Boston.

Charles Hellstedt, Esq, Consul from ditto, at Philadel.

Consuls appointed by the French King to reside in America.

The Sieur St. Barbe de Marbois, Consul General for the thirteen United States, residence at Philadelphia.

The Sieur LeTombe, for the State of Massachusetts, who on a count of his health, has lately returned to France, Mons. Tuscan, his Vice Consul for the State of New-Hampshire, is to reside at Boston during his absence.

The Sieur de Jean de Creveneur, for the States of Connecticut, New-York, and New-Jersey.

The Chevalier d'Annemours, for the States of Maryland and Virginia.

The Sieur Oster, Vice Consul at Virginia.

The Sieur Barbe de Marbois, jun. Vice Consul at Rh. Island.

Hon. M. de Chateaufort, Esq; Consul at the Carolinas.

The Sieur Petry, Vice Consul at North Carolina.

The Sieur de la Forest, Vice Consul at Georgia.

An ordinance of the King of France, dated the 17th of December 1734, contains an amnesty and general pardon for the crime of desertion, in favor of all soldiers, troopers, hussars, dragoons and yagars, who deserted previous to the first of January 1785; those who reside in the United States are to apply to the Consuls or Vice-Consuls to receive passports, which are to operate to their full security when they return to France.

The Names of the French Packet Boats, stationed between L'Orient and New-York, under the superintendance of Hector St. John, Esq; resident at New-York, viz.

Le Courier de l'Europe,	Le Courier de l'Orient,
Le Courier de l'Amerique,	L'Alligator, and
Le Courier de New-York,	La Martinique.

The design of these Packets is to facilitate the communication between France and America, and the concerns of commerce between both countries, by bringing over and carrying back to Europe, letters, packets, passengers, and goods.—These vessels are all copper bottomed, and fitted out in the best manner.

At the departure of one Packet, the next following is to begin its equipment, and depart from New-York as near the 20th of each month as their arrival will admit.

French Free Ports.

THE French King, desirous to encourage the Commerce of all nations, hath for that purpose, augmented the number of free ports in that Kingdom: the following is a copy of the King's Arret relative thereto, viz.

I. The port and upper town of Dunkerque, as well as the port, the city and territory of Marseilles, shall continue to enjoy the privileges of which they are at present in possession, without any innovation whatever.

II. From the first day of July next, the port and the city of L'Orient shall enjoy full liberty to admit the ships and merchandizes of all nations, and to export every kind of produce and merchandize free of duty, in the manner as permitted at Dunkerque, under such precautions and formalities however as his Majesty shall think proper hereafter to prescribe for the commerce of the East-Indies, China, and the French Colonies.

III. The port and city of Bayonne, those of St. Jean de Luz, and the places under the same jurisdiction, shall enjoy from the first day of September next. the same privilege and liberty as expressed in the preceeding article for foreign trade, as well by sea as by land, as will be more largely explained by letters patent determining the extent of the privileges of Bayonne, of St. Jean de Luz, and the country of Labour: And upon the present arret all necessary writings shall be drawn.

Done at Versailles, the 14th day of May, 1784.

Explanation of the Device of the Arms of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

HARVARD UNIVERSITY.

OUR wise and pious Ancestors, so early as the year 1636, laid the foundation of Harvard College (now University) at Cambridge, in which many persons of great eminence have been initiated in those arts and sciences which qualified them for public employments, both in Church and State. The Constitution of this Commonwealth confirms to the President and Fellows, in their corporate capacity, their officers and servants, all the powers, authorities, rights, liberties, privileges, immunities and franchises, which they heretofore were intitled to have, hold, use, exercise or enjoy. And all gifts, grants, devises, of houses and lands, tenements, goods, chattels, legacies and conveyances heretofore made to that seminary, under whatever description, are likewise confirmed to the said President, &c. in their said capacity, according to the true intent and meaning of the donors, grantors, or devisors.—Since the year 1642 to July 1785, upwards of 3000 persons have been admitted to academical degrees, about 1370 of whom are still living; and near 1000 of those who received education there have been ordained to the work of the Gospel Ministry.

Rev. JOSEPH WILLARD, D. D. President.

O V E R S E E R S.

[Who are vested with all the powers and authority belonging, or appertaining thereto, as set forth in an act of the Colony pass'd in the year 1642, except such as were afterwards vested in the President and Fellows by the Charter of 1652.]

His Excellency the Governor, his Honour the Lieutenant Governor, the Honorable Council and Senate, the Reverend President, and Ministers of the Congregational Churches in the Towns of Boston, Charlestown, Cambridge, Watertown, Roxbury, and Dorchester.

Rev. Simeon Howard, D. D. Secretary to the Overseers.

immediately preceeding the last wednesday in April.

The President, Fellows, Professors, Tutors, Librarian, and Students, who have their residence at the University, and settled Ministers of the Gospel, and Grammar School Masters, are not to be assessed for their polls or estates, unless their real estate be not under their actual management and improvement, and not in the parish where they are settled: also all persons who have the management or improvement of the estate of the College, are not to be assessed for the same.

BY the Laws of this Commonwealth, the inhabitants of each town within the same are to take due care from time to time to be constantly provided with an able, learned, orthodox minister or ministers, of good conversation, to dispense the word of God to them, who are to be suitably encouraged, and sufficiently supported and maintained by the said inhabitants:---Notwithstanding which, these are, and have been for a number of years past, upwards of 100 vacant parishes in this Commonwealth;
some of them in populous and wealthy towns.

The anniversary Convention of the Congregational Ministers is held at Boston the Thursday following the last wednesday in May ; on which day a Sermon is publickly preached before them, and a collection made for the charitable purpose of relieving and supporting such of the families of their Order as may stand in need thereof.

—The Rev. Dr. Moses Hemmenway, of Wells, is chosen to preach the Sermon at the next Convention ; but in case of sickness, or other providential impediment that he cannot attend, the Rev. Mr. Gad Hitchcock, of Pembroke, is to officiate in his stead.

The Rev. Dr. John Lathrop, of Boston, is Scribe to the Convention of Ministers.

By the Laws of this Commonwealth, every town is to be provided with one or more Gospel Ministers :—

Also, by the same authority, every town having 50 householders or upwards, is to be constantly provided with a School-master, to teach children and youth to read and write ; and where any town has the number of 100 families or householders, there is also to be a Grammar-school set up therein, and some discreet person, well instructed in the tongues, procured to keep the same, and be suitably encouraged and paid by the inhabitants.

The neglect of having Ministers and School-masters, or not making suitable provision for them, is to be remedied by complaint to the Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County wherein any delinquent town lies.

“The observance of these wholesome and necessary Laws has been shamefully neglected by divers towns, and the penalty thereof being not required, tends greatly to the nourishment of ignorance and irreligion, whereof grievous complaints are made.”

All Judicial Officers, duly appointed, commissioned and sworn, are to hold their Offices during good behaviour, (excepting Justices of the Peace, whose commissions are to be renewed every seven years) though, nevertheless, the Governor, with the consent of Council, may remove them upon the address of both Houses of the Legislature.

No Person, by the Constitution, is to hold or exercise at the same time more than one of the following offices, viz. Judge of Probate, Sheriff, Register of Probate, or Register of Deeds, and never more than two offices which are held by appointment of the Governor, or the Governor and Council, or the Senate, or the House of Representatives, or by the election of the people at large, or of the people of any county (military offices and the offices of Justices of the Peace excepted) is to be held by one person.

No person holding the office of Judge of the Supreme Judicial Court, Secretary, Attorney General, Solicitor General, Treasurer or Receiver General, Judge of Probate, Commissary General, President, Professor, or Instructor of Harvard College, Sheriff, Clerk of the House of Representatives, Registers of Probate and of Deeds, Clerks of the Supreme Judicial Court and Inferior Court of Common Pleas, or Officer of the Customs (including Naval Officers) is at the same time to have a seat in the Senate or House of Representatives; but their being chosen, and accepting the same, is to operate as a resignation of their seat in the Senate or House of Representatives: and the same rule is to take place in case any Judge of the Supreme Judicial Court, or Judge of Probate, shall accept a seat in Council, or any Counsellor accepts of either of those offices.

No person is ever to be admitted to hold a seat in the legislature, or office of importance, that has been convicted of bribery or corruption in obtaining an election.

All Commissions, and all Writs issuing out of the Clerk's office in any of the Courts of Law, are to be in the name of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts; the former to be sign'd by the Governor, and attested by the Secretary, with the great seal affix'd; and the latter under the seal of the Court from whence they issue, to bear test of the first Justice, and to be sign'd by the Clerk of such Court.

The privilege and benefit of the writ of habeas-corpus is to be enjoyed in the most free, easy, cheap, expeditious and ample manner, and not be suspended by the Legislature but upon the most urgent and pressing occasions.

In all cases where sums of money are mentioned, the value is to be computed in silver at Six shillings and eight pence per ounce.

The Constitution is to be revised and amended in the year 1795, if found necessary and expedient.

Delegates to Congress are to be elected sometime in the month of June annually, by joint ballot of both Houses of Assembly, to serve for one year from the first Monday of November then next ensuing.
